

Client Advisory

MANDATORY Submission of GST Registration Number of Invoicing Party in the Shipping Instruction Remarks

Dear Valued Customer,

Further to our last Advisory GST Update 3, CMA CGM India would like to advise that for customers who have not already submitted the GST Registration Number, it's mandatory to submit GST Registration Number of the "Invoicing Party" in the remarks field of Shipping Instruction.

We thank our customer who has already provided the Services Tax Identification Number (GSTIN number).

Those customers who have not submitted the GST registration number yet to CMA CGM India are requested to mention GST Registration Number of Invoicing Party with complete name and address details in the shipping instruction remarks column with immediate effect.

Invoicing party Name-: ABC Company Pvt Ltd.
Address-: XXXXX (complete address)
GSTIN -: 37XXXXXC9048G1ZK

Failing which, the invoice will be generated as 'unregistered customer'. Any unregistered customer will not be able to claim input tax credits.

We look forward to your support and co-operation in this matter, kindly contact your sales person accordingly for the sales Quotations.

Best Regards,
CMA CGM Agencies India Pvt. Ltd.
