

Customs Instructions No. (93) for year 2017

Concerning intensifying the procedures of monitoring and inspection, and increasing the caution and precaution inside all ports and customs areas

General Director of Customs

Due to the sensitive Arabian and regional circumstances passed by the region, which is characterized by absence of stability in some areas, and extravagance of terrorism, violence, extremism, and flourishing of smuggling, in addition to the terrorism threats faced by the Arabian countries, making the majority of security efforts devoted for facing this attacking danger which threatens the entity of the State and its stability, in addition to the life of its citizens and their gains, and whereas the General Department of Customs is the first defence line for the country.

Therefore, the managers are kindly requested to inform and refer to the concerned officers with them in the ports and customs areas to work on intensifying the procedures of monitoring, increasing caution and precaution, increasing the level of readiness, taking all preventive actions and remedies, non-tolerance, and using all new inspection sets available with them, the auxiliary sets, and customs tracking unit (police dogs) for confronting these threats.

For information and acting accordingly.

Issued on: 6/8/2017

General Director of the General Department of Customs

Customs Instructions No. (94) for year 2017

Concerning obtaining the necessary releases by the Public Authority for Communications and Information Technology

