

November 25th, 2019

Customer Advisory on Network Changes Announcement

Dear valued customer,

We are pleased to share the details of our new 2020 network outlook with you. West Coast South America and Central America to Europe services will experience changes to rotations on both headhaul and backhaul direction. Please see further details below.

North Europe

Service	West Coast South America/Central America to North Europe (New Rotation)	Last Sailing (Former Rotation)	First Sailing (New Rotation)
ECUBEX	Guayaquil – Manzanillo – Santa Marta Magdalena – Southampton – Antwerp – Hamburg – Bremenhaven – Veracruz – Altamira – Puerto Moin – Manzanillo – Balboa	Maersk Newbury Jan. 6 th Guayaquil	Maersk Brani Jan. 13 th Guayaquil
CLX	San Antonio – Balboa – Manzanillo – Antwerp – Rotterdam – London Gateway – Hamburg	Safmarine Nomazwe Jan. 6 th San Antonio	Polar Ecuador Jan. 17 th San Antonio
CRX	Port of Big Creek – Manzanillo – Puerto Moin – Cork co Cork – Tilbury – Antwerp – Bremenhaven	Polar Brasil Dec. 28 th Puerto Moin	Bsl Cape Town Jan. 3 rd Puerto Moin

South Europe

Service	West Coast South America/Central America to South Europe (New Rotation)	Last Sailing (Former Rotation)	First Sailing (New Rotation)
ECUMED	Guayaquil – Puerto Bolivar-El oro – Balboa – Manzanillo – Port Tangier Mediterranee – Algeciras – Piraeus – Canakkale – Izmit Korfezi – Ambarli port Istanbul – Bosperus – Yuzhny – Novorossiysk	Maersk Bintan Jan. 5 th Guayaquil	Laust Maersk Jan. 12 th Guayaquil
CARMED	Discontinued	Bsl Cape Town Dec. 29 th Manzanillo	/

We expect to handle the migration to the new schedules without service interruptions. Updated service maps and transit time overviews for our future network will be updated on <https://www.maersk.com/global-presence>.

We want to thank you for your business and look forward to continuously serving global transportation needs and in case you have any questions please contact your local sales representative.

Best regards,
Maersk