China: Arrangements to ease port congestion in Yantian

Dear Valued Customer,

The Port of Yantian is currently experiencing traffic congestion and high yard occupancy, impacting both inbound and outbound shipments.

Please take note of the following arrangements to ease movements in and around port areas.

Gate-in schedule at Yantian International Container Terminal (YICT)

YICT has announced the following gate-in guidelines over the next week to facilitate yard operations:

From 25 May 2200 hours to 27 May 2359 hours:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Gate-in of laden containers suspended</li><li>• Pick-up of empty* or laden containers remain permissible, as per normal</li></ul>
From 28 May 0000 hours to 3 June:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Gate-in of laden containers only if load vessel's ETA is within 4 days</li><li>• Pick-up of empty* or laden containers remain permissible, as per normal</li></ul>

**All empty containers will only be available for pick-up 5 days before ETD.*

You are advised to check the latest arrival date of your booked voyage via YICT's website here prior to gate-in, and to follow the above gate-in guidelines.
