

Myanmar - Suspension of Import Bookings into Myanmar

Dear ,

With continuous daily protests in Myanmar, the situation is becoming more and more tense. Operationally, the terminals in Myanmar are close to full capacity and feeder services, road transportation is limited, and with a number of factories and depots working with a skeleton labour force.

With that, Hapag-Lloyd have taken the decision to temporarily suspend any Import bookings into Myanmar with immediate effect.

For those shipments already on the water we will endeavor to have these delivered to Myanmar as planned. However, delays are to be expected. We are monitoring the situation closely on a daily basis and will update all once the situation improves.
