MSC Reintroduces Dragon Service from Asia to Mediterranean Trade

MSC is pleased to reintroduce our DRAGON service that will connect Asia to Israel, Italy and South of France, and offer the fastest transit times into the Mediterranean to further help provide our clients the flexibility to meet market demands.

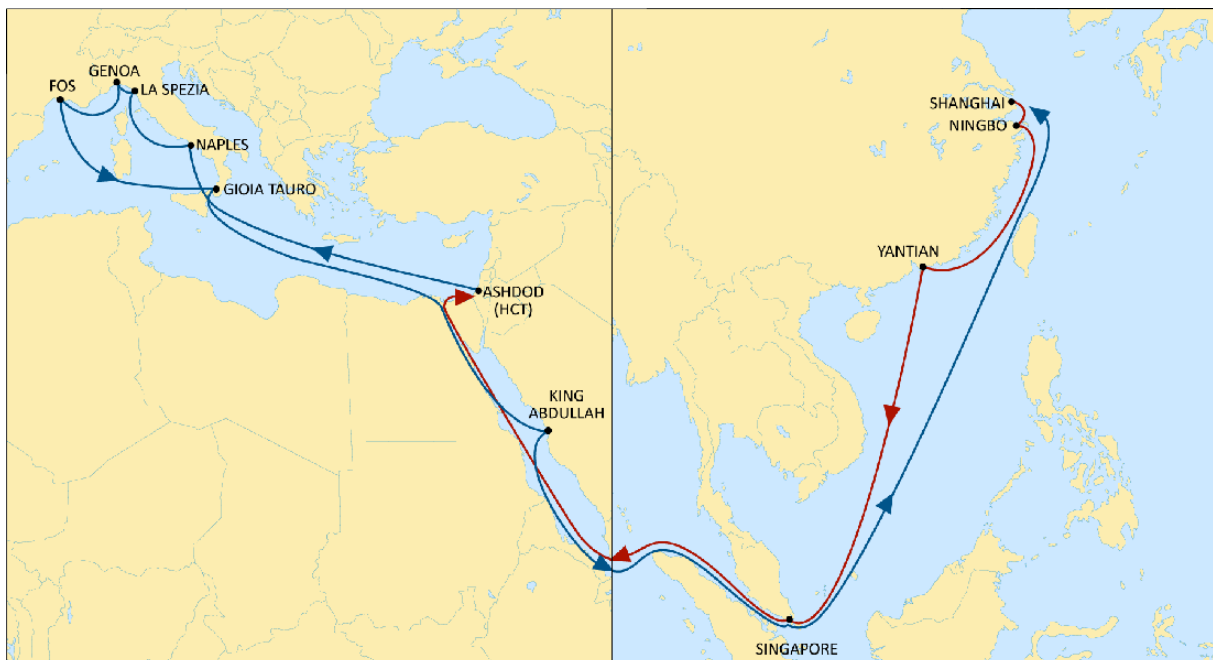

With this enhanced service, MSC will be the first carrier offering a direct call into NAPLES that will allow our clients to get the best coverage into the South Italian market.

Additionally, this service will deliver the fastest connections into Tyrrhenian region and South of France.

Furthermore, the newly introduced call at Ashdod Hadarom will allow MSC to offer full coverage of Asia into the Israeli market, together with a direct Haifa call on Phoenix service, further providing the flexibility our clients need.

The full rotation is:

Shanghai – Ningbo – Yantian – Singapore – Ashdod (HCT) – Naples – La Spezia – Genoa – Fos sur Mer – Gioia Tauro – King Abdullah – Singapore – Shanghai

This first sailing is due to depart from Shanghai on March 15th, 2023.
