Dear Nathalie,

However, the information that was provided corresponded to a previous service notification. We apologize for the inconveniences that our earlier message might have caused and kindly ask you to refer to the following update with the latest information, as published on our website on January 13, 2022.

If you are shipping between Asia and the Mediterranean with our MD1 and MD2 services, you might be interested in this update for the December 1, 2021 and January 4, 2022 news.

As it was previously announced, there are alternating port omissions between Pusan, Korea and Shanghai, China caused by schedule recovery measures. With your cargo planning in mind, please refer to the table below. It provides an overview per service of the vessels scheduled to omit Pusan, Shanghai or Ningbo and the week number.
